

GUARDSMEN OPEN COUNTER DRIVE ON ARMY OF AMAZONS

Sheriff Has 500 Warrants Charging Mine Strikers With Rioting.

BUILDING STOCKADE FOR THE PRISONERS

Troopers Taunted At Night By Great Army Of Kansas Women.

Franklin, Kas. Dec. 16.—Kansas National Guardsmen opened a counter offensive against the army of Amazons—the 6,000 marching mothers, wives and sweethearts of Kansas miners—here at 4:30 o'clock this morning.

Upon direct orders of Gov. Henry J. Allen, between 500 and 600 warrants were prepared throughout the night by Richard J. Hopkins, state attorney general, and C. A. Burnett Crawford county prosecutor.

The warrants charge "assault and battery," "rioting," "disturbing of the peace" and "obstruction of property." Six deputies backed by militia men with bayonets fixed under command of Milt Mulberry and Arma—the real center of the strike zone—at 4:30 o'clock. At daylight the officers were instructed to begin serving the warrants.

But one arrest has been made at 8 o'clock, however, Charles Stewart, striking miner, was in jail at Girard, the county seat, on a charge of assaulting a working miner. Stewart was captured within a few feet of the Missouri state line, in a running revolver battle with sheriff's deputies. Sheriff Gould was at sea as to his future course.

Establish Stockade
"My jail will only hold 60 women prisoners—I have warrants for over 500," he said. Gould planned to establish a stockade where the women are to be imprisoned under military guard.

Six hundred guardsmen were in camp in the mining towns surrounding Franklin, headquarters of the Amazon army.

The troopers spent a sleepless night. With nightfall Thursday the militiamen sought their camp sites. Bonfires blazed and the guardsmen gathered about to slug.

Strikers gathered from the four corners of the field. Encircling the military camps, just beyond the guard lines, where the youthful troopers patrolled their posts, the miners—and the Amazons—gathered in groups of hundreds.

Throughout the night the Amazons shouted taunts at the militiamen. Not until the first rays of dawn did the strikers leave the vicinity of the camps.

J. S. PETERS, 62, DIES FOLLOWING OPERATION

J. S. Peters, 62, died in a Cleveland hospital at 4 p. m. Thursday following an operation. The direct cause of his death is not known. Mr. Peters, for many years a resident of Salem, was taken to Cleveland two weeks ago for surgical care. Previous to his illness he was employed by the E. W. Bliss Co., a machinist by trade. He was a member of the Machinists union.

Mr. Peters was born near Harrisburg, Pa., and came to Salem more than 30 years ago. He was united in marriage with Miss Laura Derr, of this vicinity, now deceased. Some time later he married Mrs. Ella Wolf who survives. There are several brothers and sisters, with the following four sons: Homer A. Salem; Marvin and Willis of Cleveland; and Emerson L. Peters of Blue Fields, W. Va.

Funeral arrangements will be announced Saturday.

JACOBS, THREATENED, REVEALS BIG DEMAND

Frank Jacobs, Youngstown attorney, has made public a brief and almost illegible letter demanding $29,000 with threatened alternative of death before March 3. No directions for paying the money was given.

In a letter to a newspaper there, Jacobs announced his intention of not complying and urges should he be shot down, that a careful investigation of the case be made.

Jacobs was scheduled to address the Kiwanis club meeting here Wednesday night but was unable to attend.

Mail Holiday Parcels Now, Mounts Urges

Postmaster Says Many May Be Disappointed On Christmas Day.

Mail your Christmas packages now. That is the appeal of Postmaster George H. Mounts, who declared Friday that those who delay until next Wednesday or Thursday the mailing of packages to a distance will be disappointed if they expect them to be delivered in time for Christmas.

Packages should be mailed not later than Dec. 21 for delivery even in Cleveland or Pittsburgh, the postmaster stated. The ordinary mails have been heavy and the addition of Christmas mail will overtax postal employees. It is feared, if the bulk of that mail is left until the last few days, The response to date has not been as great as had been expected.

The postoffice will not be open Sunday, Dec. 25, but one delivery may be made the following day. Every effort possible will be made to deliver all parcels within the city that are presented up to noon Saturday, Dec. 24. Post-office authorities are discouraging the use of small envelopes which so often appear at Christmas time and which cause the employees so much trouble.

French Navy Plans Cause Complication

Powers Notified France Is Preparing To Build 10 Dreadnaughts.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Before the big three powers had hardly done congratulating themselves today on the amicable adjusting of the 5-5-3 naval ratio question, fresh complications were threatened over the question of France's ratio.

An official spokesman for the British delegation was authority for the statement this morning that France has served notice on the powers that she intends to build 10 super-dreadnaughts in the 10 years subsequent to 1925.

It was also announced officially by the British spokesman that A. J. Balfour, as head of the British delegation, will formally propose to the five great powers the complete abolition of submarines.

Mr. Balfour's proposal, it is understood, will be placed before the committee on limitation of naval armament which is composed of the head of delegations each assisted by a civilian and naval advisor. The proposal will be made, it was stated, on the grounds that the submarine is not adaptable to humanitarian warfare and should be abolished because it has no peace time function.

It can be stated that the abolition of the submarine will be strenuously opposed by the American, French, Italian and probably the Japanese delegations.

Scottish Free State Object Of New Drive

Gaels Form League To Work For Home Rule; Cite Grievances.

London, Dec. 16.—A Gaelic campaign for a Scottish free state, modeled after Ireland, is in full swing today. It is being conducted by Gaels both in and out of Scotland.

A league has been formed with Angus Clarke as president to work for Scottish home rule. Clarke said today that the league will ask all Scotch members of parliament to withdraw.

The Scots are establishing headquarters in Glasgow and have begun publication of an official organ called "Liberty." This newspaper will be distributed throughout England and Scotland in furtherance of the liberty movement.

The newspaper advocated "raising the fiery cross on the Scottish Highlands." The fiery cross was the ancient symbol of the Scottish clans. It was set up on a mountain top, or carried through villages to notify the people that the enemy was approaching and to gather them for battle.

Among the grievances cited by "Liberty" are the following:

One—The act of union of 1707 which was characterized as an "insidious piece of legislation."

Second—Seventeen of the 33 Scottish counties show a decrease in population since the 1911 census.

Three—Five counties have populations below that of 1860.

Fourth—One-fifth of the land in Scotland is reserved as deer forests and game preserves.

Fifth—One Englishman owns a preserve of 200,000 acres, which stretches across Scotland from sea to sea.

Six—All attempts to recover Scottish land for the peasantry have proved futile.

Seventh—One land recovery act passed was mangled by the house of lords. The officials of the new liberty league claim England is responsible for the unfavorable conditions in Scotland. They allege the bad housing conditions in the cities are due to the British agrarian policy which is driving the poor off the land and into the cities.

FIRE AT SCHOOLHOUSE PUPILS OUT IN MINUTE

Some papers in the brick chute at the High school building caught fire about 11:45 a. m. Friday and the fire department was called to extinguish the flames.

The fire is thought to have started from some papers from the chemical room which were thrown into the chute.

The children were out of the building in about one minute. There was lots of smoke but the blaze was put out with chemicals and there was no damage.

Morality Is Taught In Public Schools Supt. Alan Asserts

The recent agitation for reforms in the public schools has brought forth an interesting reply from J. S. Alan, superintendent of schools, in the following letter to the editor: Editor of The News:

It augurs well for the future that so many persons are taking an active interest in the education of youth. The agitation for more attention to some form of moral education is not local. Church and educational magazines are filled with the discussions. We wish to take exception to two statements made by Mr. Eastman in his letter Thursday.

Experienced teachers will laugh at the assertion that little is said in school about lying, stealing, and other immoralities. A large part of the teacher's time in the lower grades and much in the upper is taken up with a consideration of the virtues, truthfulness, honesty, purity, cleanliness, politeness, and their opposites.

In every school a few lie, steal, are profane or vulgar, neglect their bodies, or are unmannerly. As the teacher observes these actions or qualities, she talks about them, calls attention to the result if the action becomes a habit, and suggests ways of overcoming the tendency. Thus each week probably most of the virtues are presented to a school and recommended to pupils.

We challenge the suggestion that young people are less moral than those of former times. Every age seems to have predicted that the children were going to perdition. Horace said it; Cicero repeatedly cried out, "O tempora, O mores!"; Locke, Hume and Mills, and now modern ethical writers, bemoan the same condition. Even the Scriptures, we believe say that we are prone to ask, "Why were the former times better than these?"

Pupils More Moral
And we hope the author of last night's letter will pardon us when we say that several writers have declared that it was a sure sign of age when a man begins to deplore the character and actions of the younger generations.

Dr. McMaster said recently in an address before the Salem Rotary club that, despite the criticism of young people of this age, never since he had been president of Mt. Union had a finer, more conscientious, and more purposeful body of students been in attendance at that institution. Dr. Burton, president of Michigan University, expressed the same opinion concerning the students under his charge.

After 25 years of dealing with young people of all ages we can say with the utmost confidence that pupils are much more positively moral than those of former times. They are franker, more manly and more womanly, more considerate of others, more helpful, have better ideals, that is positive not negative ideals, think less of the vulgar side of sex questions, and live more peaceably together.

They may dance more, smoke more, and some loaf more because nothing is provided for them to do, and there may be a greater freedom between the sexes, but it is a more wholesome freedom.

One who has worked with modern young people, who has seen their forceful activity, their ability to direct affairs, and their initiative, as compared to the passive goodness and restraint of young people of the older schools, and who knows the

Novelties Of All Kinds At Senior Carnival Tonight

Friday night marks the opening of the Senior carnival to be held for two nights at Salem High school to raise funds for the alumni scholarship fund and also to create a fund to purchase a farewell gift to the school by the class of 1922.

Combined efforts of all students with the senior class in completing arrangements have resulted in extraordinary features and novelties which will be introduced for the first time since these popular carnivals have been sponsored by school students.

A variety of entertainment is promised the public. There is the sideshow, the midway, the different booths, the musical show, the dancing girls and every other form of entertainment imaginable.

One feature of the carnival will be a Christmas seal booth arranged by Miss Grace Donning of the Public Health league in connection with the Christmas seal campaign now being conducted.

splendid results secured by Scouts and other similar organizations, cannot help but become most optimistic and enthusiastic over the present and the outlook for the future. The greatest prevention of immorality is not reading to pupils, but furnishing active, in creating, purposeful work.

Teachers Dress Modestly
Youth is judged adversely by some critics because many bandits caught lately are young. But examination shows that these are not the boys who remained in school but those who were allowed to stay at home. We doubt whether you can find any crooks or criminals on the roll of the Alumni of Salem High school.

We wish to thank Dr. Eastman for his praise for teachers, and in passing to say that after all the kind words said during "education week" about the efficiency of teachers, it is a matter of regret that the only public comment was the anonymous criticism in The News of some of the teachers, with regard to dress. After seeing thousands of teachers we declare that ours are as modest and tasteful in dress as those of any city. Instead of praying for uniforms, the writer should be giving thanks that for our moderate salaries we are able to secure the refined, efficient teachers we have. It may be that in order to make a good impression some of them did wear that day the clothes they usually save for church. A few are able to afford two outfits.

WOMAN DECLARES MORMON CHURCH IS GREAT MENACE

Mrs. Diefenderfer Tells Of Menace Of Mormonism At Meeting Here.

URGES AMENDMENT TO BAR PRACTICES

Claims Church Has Control Of Sugar And Raisin Industries.

"The Mormon church is a heathen kingdom and not an American institution," declared Mrs. Frances J. Diefenderfer, Erie, Pa., in an address on "The Menace of Mormonism" Thursday evening at the First Friends church.

Mrs. Diefenderfer is president-at-large of the National Order of Anti-Polygamy Crusaders. The meeting was arranged by the W. C. T. U. and its president, Mrs. Laura Garside, presided.

"I am for one Lord, one home, and government for America. The Mormon church has taken the crown from our Christ," she stated. "This is not a warfare against religion, but for religion. Their marriage ceremony is a very important part of their activity and there is just as much polygamy in the church as there used to be." "There are two kinds of marriage in their church," she explained. "One for time and one for eternity. The woman's salvation and resurrection depends on her husband."

Wonderful Organization
The power of the Mormon church in its wonderful organization, according to Mrs. Diefenderfer, she spoke of the great political and commercial influence of these people and said that the president of the Mormon church owns and controls the sugar business of the country and also that the Mormons own and control the entire raisin industry of this country.

"The cure for this great evil is on a national constitutional amendment that will give us a federal law to control these conditions," she said.

Mrs. Diefenderfer is working in the interest of the Gillett amendment to the constitution. There are two sections taken from it:

"Section 1.—Polygamy and polygamous cohabitation shall not exist within the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction."

"Section 2.—Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."

In the afternoon Mrs. Diefenderfer spoke to women only at which time she told of the temple marriage ceremony.

While in the city she was entertained by Mrs. Anna Bennett, East Fourth st. From Salem she went to East Palestine.

TWO MEN HELD GUILTY OF BURGLARY MUST GO TO PEN, JUDGE RULES

John and Roy Easton, indicted for burglary in connection with attempts made to enter a jewelry store and grocery in Wellsville, were found guilty by the jury that heard the case Thursday afternoon after a case over an hour's deliberation.

There was no direct evidence against the accused except their own confession made to the police and others at Wellsville when they were arrested. After being arraigned before the court they repudiated their confession, claiming that they had been induced to admit the crime on the promise that they would get off easy, but all the officers denied there had been any threats or promises made.

Judge J. G. Moore sentenced the two men to the penitentiary for from one to 15 years.

School Reforms

THE "Observer" whose recent letter to the editor advocated uniforms for school teachers evidently did not take into consideration the fact that the average teacher does not dress differently from other young women. Most of the Salem teachers dress more conservatively, perhaps, than many of their sisters who are otherwise engaged. But regardless of how they may dress, they do not set the standard or the style for their girl pupils. These girls are sent to school garbed in the latest creations or otherwise, as their mothers may approve, or as the family pocketbook may dictate.

If the reformers object to the styles they should direct their pleas to the parents. Instead of spending money to uniform our teachers, we should be thankful that the public schools of this city are in the care of such an efficient corps of teachers. Parents reassured themselves of the fact when they visited the schools during the "education week" program last week.

The greatest concern, however, seems to be over the placing of the Bible in the schools. When W. C. T. U. members announced that they would petition the school board to adopt the Bible as a text book, they gave the impression that they wanted the Bible to be taught in the public schools as it is in the Sunday schools and churches. That developed a divided public opinion, and justly so, for the public should understand thoroughly just how far this reform would go if instituted in the public schools. The public school is no place for the teaching of sectarian religion or dogmatic beliefs, and there should not be the least suspicion on the part of followers of any creed. The public schools are for the children of all classes, all creeds and all races.

Much good can come from reading selected ethical or moral passages from the Bible, and there is no disposition on the part of school authorities to prevent or discourage such a practice. Study of the Bible should begin at home and if all parents would insist that their children attend Sunday school there would be no need for controversy over Bible study in the public schools.

Larger Police Force

THE NEWS believes that Safety Director Chalfant has been sincere in his efforts to build up the police department and to provide the city with better police protection. It also believes that he has the cooperation of the chief of police and the policemen. No one in Salem expects the same protection of private homes, industrial plants, business section, etc., as is afforded in large cities where the police force is large enough to patrol every district and also take care of emergency cases. That is impossible with a force of two men but it is the ideal plan and one which the safety director is advocating to the extent of urging council to appropriate necessary funds.

Undoubtedly the Salem police force should be increased, but The News doubts whether any one in Salem can suggest a feasible way to finance the plan. It seems most likely that Salem will be compelled to get along with a force of the present size until the financial stringency in municipal affairs eases up.

But that situation should not detract from Director Chalfant's efforts to improve his department. The small force which now guards the city will find an incentive for greater efforts in the encouragement it receives from the safety director and the same encouragement from the mayor would aid materially.

WOO BY HAIR TONIC NO MORE

Young Men With Small Wages Find Girls Do Not Demand Aroma—Barbers Complain.

Hark to the plaint of the barbers, enjoins the Milwaukee Journal. Days when youths were wont to stroll in, sent themselves and merrily nonchalantly, "Give me everything," are now history. Modern Lockhairs have discovered that they can step about with the lady of their choice without surrounding themselves with the aroma of hair tonic.

Barbers complain that since the business depression began and wages have come down, the Beau Brummel of wartime prosperity who used to spend $2.50 every few days in improving his personal appearance is a thing of the past.

"In the days that are done the boys would order all the frills known to the tonsorial artist," said one barber. "Now they shave themselves and about once in six weeks get a plain haircut."

Another barber admitted that he is forced to use a high type of salesmanship to convince the customer that he needs a massage. The porter, counting his nickles when the day's business is over, laments when he recalls the times when "two-bits" was the usual tip. The manicurist admits men aren't susceptible to being vamped.

The Truer Things of Life.

We stand together at another fullness of time; perhaps it is a fullness in which material things, the man-made things, bulk largest. Perhaps it is a time in which confidence in the human seems to excel confidence in the divine. It is becoming increasingly evident that there must speedily come to men the visions of life and real values as they find their finer and larger interpretation of him whose birth the world celebrates at Christmas. There is a tragic, if inarticulate, appeal being made today for a return to the homelier, stronger and truer things of life; we are looking for a new birth of goodness that shall restore our lost peace and bring back again to earth the deeper satisfaction of the human heart.—James E. Freeman.

SAINT OF VIRTUE AND PIETY

St. Nicholas Was of Unblemished Character, According to Hone's "Ancient Mysteries."

ACCORDING to Hone's "Ancient Mysteries" Saint Nicholas, bishop of Myra, was a saint of great virtue and piety. The old legend is that the sons of a rich Asiatic, on their way to Athens for education, were slain by a robber innkeeper, dismembered and their parts hidden in a brine tub. In the morning came the saint, whose visions had warned him of the crime, whose authority forced confession, and whose prayers restored the boys to life.

St. Nicholas is the grand patron of the children of France, to whom he brings bonbons for the good, but a cane for the naughty child. In Germany he acts as an advance courier, examining into the conduct of the children, distributing goodies and promises to those with good records, a further reward which the Christ Child brings at Christmas time. But his own peculiar celebration takes place in a tiny seaport in southern Italy.

On St. Nicholas day, December 6, the sailors of the port take the saint's image from the beautiful Church of St. Nicholas, and with a long procession of boats carry it far out to sea. Returning with it at nightfall they are met by bonfires, torches, all the townspeople and hundreds of quaintly dressed pilgrims, who welcome the returning saint with songs and carry him to visit one shrine after another, before returning him to the custody of the canons.

Chambers' "Book of Days" says: "Through the native rock which forms the tomb of the saint, water constantly exudes, which is collected by the canons on a sponge attached to a reed, squeezed into bottles and sold to pilgrims as a miraculous specific under the name of the 'manna of St. Nicholas.'"

LOU TELLEGEN, FAMOUS ROMANTIC ACTOR, MAKES TREMENDOUS HIT HERE

Lou Tellegen, famous romantic actor and husband of the famous Gertrude Farrar, brought all his emotional powers into play with tremendous effect in the comedy drama, "Blind Youth," at the Grand theater Thursday night, but few of those who are wont to go to Cleveland, New York and elsewhere to see performances by this and other stars of the stage paid him the courtesy of a visit to the Salem theater.

Supported by a clever cast in his three act comedy drama, Mr. Tellegen, former leading man of Madame Berahard, gripped his audience in the ecstasy of admiration and his every word fell upon eager ears and his every movement was followed closely by searching eyes. His acting was superb. His ability as a linguist is wonderful and the dramatic support given by his cast added to the success of this theater idol.

BLANCHE BLAIR

THAT Tanlac is a wonderful medicine for delicate children is conclusively proven by the remarkable results accomplished in the cases of the three children shown in this picture.

Little Blanche Blair, of Providence, R. I., age 13, gained 10 pounds; Regina McCabe, at right, age 9, of Scranton, Pa., gained 15 pounds; Little Richard Leary, Jr., of Philadelphia, who was very delicate, is now in fine, robust health. The statement made by their parents are as follows:

Mr. A. M. Blair, residing at 20 Atwood street, Providence, R. I., said: "We are just so happy over the change Tanlac has made in our little girl that we can't do or say enough to show our appreciation. She had lost nearly 20 pounds in weight and looked so frail and weak that her mother and I were both almost worried sick over her condition. Since taking Tanlac she has already gained 10 pounds, her color is better than it ever has been and she looks and acts like a different girl."

Mrs. Catherine McCabe, 414 Dickens Ave., Scranton, Pa., said: "The 'flu' left my little Regina in such a bad condition that I have no idea she would be with me now if it had not been for Tanlac. It is a mystery to me how she lived on the little she was eating and was so lifeless she never even cared to play with the dolls and toys she got at Christmas. Since taking Tanlac she is as hardy and well as any child could be and has gained 15 pounds in weight. I will always praise Tanlac for restoring our little girl's health."

Richard Leary, 2342 Palethorpe St., Philadelphia, said: "There is no doubt in my mind but that Tanlac saved my boy's life. For two years I wouldn't have been a bit surprised Lavender, Sweet Lavender.

The cry of "Sweet Lavender" is once more heard in the London streets, as it has been since the Huguenots first grew the sweet and cleanly plant on Lavender hill, near where the Chapham Junction railway station now stands. It carries a very fragrance across the centuries, recalling the days when London was a little town, and even Charing Cross was a somewhat distant village. As the bricks and mortar spread, the lavender retreated up the valley of the little River Wandale. Mitcham lavender became famous, and the visitors to Mitcham fair wandered through the fields to see the lavender reaped with a sickle and tied up into little bunches. Now Mitcham is threatened and the last grower is retiring from business. But London must have its beautiful, blue, scented flower. —Christian Science Monitor.

TREASURER SUES FOR STREET ASSESSMENT

County Treasurer W. R. Phillips has filed an action in common pleas court against George J. Koch of New Waterford, to collect street improvements due Columbiana county, covering a period of seven years. The village of New Waterford in 1912, it is stated, improved an East Main st. extension, and assessed Koch for that part of the improvement upon which a lot owned by him abuts. The assessments now amount to $210.60, and Treasurer Phillips wants the amount declared to be the first lien against the property.

Following the service there was no comment from Thomas until he found his Aunt Edith, a member of another church, waiting in the editor's auto outside, to go to dinner with them.

"Oh, Auntie Edith," he chorled, "you talked something."

"Why, what was it?" was her indulgent question.

"We had bread and grape juice," he replied triumphantly.—Indianapolis News.

The Christmas Spirit

AFTER a year of strife and confusion the world is about to declare an armistice for the observance of Christmas. It is curious how the essence of Christianity gets itself recognized and practiced in spite of the world, the flesh and the devil.

In this time of good will everybody becomes Christian, for Christmas is simply the substitution of the spirit of giving for the spirit of getting.

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem there came to the world a new conception of God and of his relations with man. The Child lying in the Bethlehem manger will forever symbolize and express the world-moving truth that God is love and, therefore, He gives Himself to and for men made in His image.

Tradition records that when the Wise Men from the East journeyed to Bethlehem to worship the new-born Child, they brought gifts.

The gift of God is life eternal, here and hereafter. When this divine spark animates the bosoms of men, they, too, begin to give.

Giving is the chief business of life for God and men alike. What a man gives he has. He loses all else. Earthly immortality lies in whatever one gives to one's fellows in service and friendship and healing.

I wonder if we shall ever be able to practice the Christmas spirit the year round!

If that time ever comes we shall find that most of our personal and social problems, perplexities, animosities and failures are unnecessary. If we want spring and summer and golden harvest, we must have the sun.—Dr. Charles Aubrey Eaton in Leslie's.

The Cold South.

From the observations made with- in recent years by Antarctic explorers there has been recalculated the average temperature of the southern Hemisphere as compared with the northern, and the results differ, in some respects, from those heretofore accepted. It is found that the mean temperature south of the equator, for the entire year, is about two and three-quarter degrees lower than north of the equator. But the annual variation of temperature in the northern hemisphere is twice as large as in the southern, our summer temperature being much higher and our winter temperature perceptibly lower than those of the corresponding seasons in the southern half of the globe.

ABOUT THE HOLIDAY GREENS
Spirit of Poetry in Laurel; Bay Associated With Victory; Holly Emblem of Good Luck.

WHEN we weave garlands of Christmas greenery, each branch of foliage typifies some ancient virtue, suggests a hoary superstition and carries a meaning far beyond that with which a decorator regards it.

According to the ancients the laurel communicates the spirit of poetry. To gain poetic inspiration a man should sleep with a sprig of laurel under his pillow.

Bay has several meanings. It has always been associated with victory, while it is supposed to protect the wearer from lightning. The withering and shriveling of its leaves was said to foretell death, which may account for the superstition that evergreens should not remain in the house after Twelfth night.

The Romans used to send one another sprigs of holly as emblems of good luck. Immortality is denoted by the yew. For this reason it is always used to decorate churches at Christmas time.—THE BHS.

There is nothing in the world quite so nourishing or helpful as Scott's Emulsion for thin, anemic girls of "teen-age." It is well-worth trying.

It's Time You Were in Bed

Never Heard of Sunny Side Up.
Irvin S. Cobb, on a recent southern tour stopped for dinner at a tiny railway restaurant in a Mississippi village.

"Well, uncle, what's the bill-of-fare?" he asked the aged colored man who came from the kitchen to look after him.

"De bill o'-fare," said the old man, "am ham, eggs, corn bread and coffee."

"Then I'll have ham, eggs, corn bread and coffee, uncle," said Mr. Cobb.

The old waiter bowed and shuffled out. But a moment later he put his head through the doorway again.

"Boss," he said, "how ye gwine have dem eggs—blind or lookin' at 'em?"—Detroit Free Press

Utmost care must be required in manufacture to make a proper fit with the main drive gear.

CHRISTMAS IN PIGVILLE
Papa Pig—My how the children will appreciate this nice bag of mud!

Christmas Cookies.
Cream together two cupsfuls brown sugar and one-half cupful butter. Add one well-beaten egg, eight tablespoonsful sweet milk, one tablespoonful salt, one-half teaspoonful soda dissolved in one-eighth cupful boiling water, one teaspoonful cinnamon, 2½ cupfuls rolled oats, two cupfuls flour. Mix all together and let stand for an hour, then drop a teaspoonful at a time on greased tins. Press a fat raisin on the top of each and bake in a moderate oven. This amount makes about four dozen cookies.

Novel Christmas Tree Decorations.
Effective Christmas tree decorations can easily be made at home. Take candy sticks and dress them up in crepe paper and ribbons and thus convert them into novel candy dolls. Gilded nuts, acorns hung from the branches with colored ribbon and balls of cotton sprinkled with diamond dust, as well as rings of tiny gum-drops strung on white thread, make effective trimming.

Should Remember the Needy.
There is another thing than Christmas shopping that should be attended to as early as possible by those who can afford it, and that is the making of Christmas donations for the poor.

Convalescence after pneumonia, typhoid fever and the grip, is sometimes merely apparent, not real. To make it real and rapid, there is no other tonic so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla. Thousands testify. Take Hood's.

EATS WHAT HE LIKES FIRST TIME IN YEARS

J. A. LeBlanc, of Canada, Gives Credit To Jacques' Little Wonder Capsules For Relieving Indigestion

J. A. LeBlanc, of Verdun, P. Q. Canada, has had a delightful experience. For the first time in years he knows the pleasure of eating the rich foods he likes which formerly he could not touch because of indigestion and distress.

He writes: "As is usually the custom in Canada, great spreads of food are prepared for the holiday season. Always on these occasions, I have had to be very careful in the selection of portions that would not distress my stomach. For many years I have had to deny myself the pleasure of good things to eat.

"However, during the last Christmas season, I was prevailed upon to indulge in whatever I so desired and to follow my meals with one or two of Jacques' Little Wonder Capsules. So I proceeded to eat practically everything that appealed to me and took at the finish of each meal one or an inclination to which exception can be taken. It contains more real humor, wit, novelty and original ideas than any similar attraction. There is snap and ginger from beginning to end; the music is new, bright and catchy and of that popular variety that can be whistled after one hearing.

and sometimes two of the capsules, with the result that for the first time in many years, I was not troubled in the least with my stomach, and in fact never felt quite so well as I do now. Therefore, I highly recommend the 'Little Wonders.'

Jacques' Little Wonder Capsules relieve indigestion, dyspepsia, flatulence, catarrh of the stomach, acid stomach, biliousness, heartburn and heaviness and dizziness after eating. They are easy to take. Simply place one in your mouth and take a swallow of water. Jacques' Little Wonder Capsules are made of pure gelatin which promptly dissolves upon reaching the stomach, freeing the contents to do their work in restoring the digestive organs to normal. Quick, sure relief is guaranteed or money refunded.

LEETONIA

About 6:50 p. m. Sunday the Mattas dry goods store, 25 Main st. was discovered to be on fire. Though the fire department responded quickly to the call the fire had been extinguished by the prompt efforts of town officials and others who were attracted by the alarm. The fire originated from the dropping of a match from a burning inverted gas jet and falling on some goods which took fire. The damage done is not great, the loss not yet estimated.

Saturday was Tag day for the Leetonia High school and the streets were full of little salesmen. The proceeds of the sales will be utilized for the benefit of the High School Athletic club.

Mrs. J. W. Moore, Miss Grace Royce, Miss Ethel Lushkin, Miss Laura Deibel, Miss Edie Kettle and Miss Gerde Glatner of Leetonia, students at the County Normal school, Lisbon, in company with their associate students from Lisbon, went to Youngstown Monday morning where they spent the day in visiting the different schools of that city.

Orson Thoman, who has been in poor health for several years, left his home about 2 p. m. Sunday for the purpose of taking his customary walk, but failing to return by evening search was begun and discovery made that he had boarded a Y. & O. street car for Salem. Upon investigation it was learned that he had arrived in Salem and had boarded the Canton car. By telephone the officials at Salem were requested to have Mr. Thoman leave the car just out of Salem and care for him until one of the family could reach Salem and bring him home. Mrs. Thoman at once left by automobile and on reaching Salem found her husband waiting and enjoying a visit with the men. It is thought Mr. Thoman intended going to Sebring to visit a brother.

The Delmore coal mine just west of Leetonia which has been idle for some time resumed operation the latter part of the week and will now give their men work two days a week.

The bazaar and supper given by the women of the Presbyterian church in the church parlors Thursday evening netted them more than $300.

Mrs. William Fenstermaker and Mrs. Lydia were in Salem during the week visiting in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Leland and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fenstermaker.

Mrs. Patrick Wren and sons, spent Saturday in Youngstown, guests in the home of Mrs. Wren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McGrath.

Mrs. George Ferguson and son George of Warren arrived in Lee-

NEW LAMP BURNS
94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (coal-oil).

The inventor, E. A. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St. Chicago, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

tonia Saturday and are guests of Mrs. Ferguson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Weaver.

Mrs. Effie Gilbert of Washington villa called on Leetonia friends Saturday.

Sylvia Keyser is confined to her home with scarlet fever, a few more cases of which have developed recently.

Mrs. Robert Cushing was in Youngstown Saturday. Clarence Koch of Columbiana was a Leetonia caller during the week-end. Mrs. Lydia Moyer has gone to Sharon, where she will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr. C. H. Sutherland arrived in town Saturday from Los Angeles, Calif. He joined his wife here, she having preceded him four weeks ago. They are parents of Mrs. Sutherland's parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Eli Stouffer.

Christmas Decorations

One of the easiest ways for dressing up the house at holiday time is to make lamp, candle and electric light shades of lanterns of crepe or tissue paper and tinsel. To make the small lantern pictured two rings of cardboard are covered with plain black or gold paper pasted over them. A length of light green tissue paper is folded along the center, slashed into narrow strips and pasted inside the rings. Under this a length of rose-colored crepe paper narrower than the green is pasted; this causes the strips of green paper to spread and stand out. Silver tinsel hangs from the wire handle at each side.

OUR READERS

Uniforms For Teachers

Editor of The News:

If the "Observer" can snatch a patry boot from his, her or its celestial duties to conduct a shopping tour, we shall be glad to take advantage of the opportunity to equip ourselves with garb suitable to the class room.

We realize that maids, waitresses, butlers, bell boys and porters all wear characteristic uniforms, and we think it would be quite appropriate to distinguish the teachers in the same way.

But let us suggest that the material be light enough to conceal chalk dust dark enough to eliminate excessive laundering, heavy enough for January and thin enough for June; quiet enough not to attract the attention of visitors, but loud enough to be heard in the school room. Finally, let the costume be pure, obviously pure—pure cotton, pure wool or pure silk.

TWO TEACHERS.

Why Bible Should Be Read

Editor of The News:

Do the attorneys of Salem think that reading of the Bible is worship? It is not. Nor is listening to its reading "worshiping against dictates of conscience." So much for Article 1, Section 7.

Why should the Bible be read in our schools? The churches and other large societies in Salem have unanimously said, yes. Our best citizens say yes. Shall the voice of the majority be heard?

Our most profound scholars have been students of the Bible. Our nation is founded upon Christian principles. The signer of the Declaration of Independence relied upon the protection of Divine Providence. So should we. Our president uses the Bible when he takes the oath of office and so should all our officials. Shall it then be a closed book? The reason we do not "Reflect more nearly the character of the founder," is because too often the Bible has been crowded out.

The Bible does not teach creeds, neither should the schools. But it does teach reverence, obedience to parents, business integrity, etc. The world has not outgrown the Bible and never will. If parents as well as children would study and practice the precepts of the "Old Book," our boys would attain a nobleness of character that would challenge criticism.

Yours for the study of the book.

BREAK CHEST COLDS WITH RED PEPPER

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated penetrating heat as red peppers and when heat penetrates right down into colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once.

The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known. Always say "Rowles."

No Need to Swallow Drugs

It is logical that pouring drugs into the stomach will not cure catarrh in the head. Hyomel, medicated air, reaches the seat of the disease. Guaranteed by The J. H. Lease Drug Co., Floding's Pharmacy and Bolger & French.

VARIOUS TONGUES IN BAGDAD

Pupils at Jews' School Are Taught English, French, Arabic and Persian Languages.

Most of the public scribes in Bagdad were either Armenians or Jews, both of whom are natural linguists. Many that I ran across near As Serai mosque and in Zazim Pasha street, close to the government buildings and the law courts, knew at least a half dozen languages, writes Roland Gorbald, in Asia.

It is not difficult to acquire that number in Bagdad itself. When I visited the Jews' school, the masters put their pupils through their paces by having them recite their lessons in English, French, Arabic and Persian. French has been much used in the city for social and even business purposes. The tickets to the German Bagdad railway were printed in Arabic and French—not German. With the advent of the British expeditionary force, signs in English as well as French began to appear over the shops in New street.

I laughed at some of these absurd legends and sighed over them too. They were as incongruous as the cinema houses and the watering cart labeled "Bagdad Municipality." I never really liked New street. Though it was a necessary and admirable achievement, it did not appeal to the imagination.

GRANGE OUTLINES TAXATION VIEWS; CATON IS MASTER

Cincinnati, Dec. 16.—Cigarettes, motor pictures and liquor came in for their share of discussion on the final day of the Ohio grangers' convention and more than a score of resolutions, ranging from restriction of smoking to increasing the penalty for petty larceny were passed.

Argument on resolutions stopped long enough to permit delegates to elect H. A. Caton of Fresno, Ohio, master of the grange, defeating C. A. Peyer, Coalition, Ohio, overseer.

The election of Caton it was said, is an endorsement of the principles of the Smith one per cent law.

The report of the committee on taxation favors an amendment to the constitution of Ohio providing for a debt limitation, tax limitation, budget system and a graduated state income and inheritance tax. The retention of the present tax limitation unless raised by a majority of the voters voting at a general election was urged.

In discussing the taxation of real estate the committee favored "the general reappraisal of real estate put into the taxation system of Ohio is so changed that other forms of property and income shall bear their just burdens of taxation." The passage of a law that will impose a tax on trucks measured by the damage they do to roads was endorsed.

Opposition to any form of sales tax on either state or national programs was approved. The opposition to the further issuance of bonds to meet state or national aid in road building the further issuing of tax exempt bonds and a demand for more efficiency and economy in the conduct of public affairs met with unanimous approval.

G. B. Lewis, Hancock county, Ohio was elected elected lecturer, taking the position vacated by H. A. Caton. After a spirited contest, Columbus was chosen as the city for the next convention.

Absolute suspension of all work on highway construction unless projects can be finished at less cost and with a greater saving was urged in a resolution adopted at the night meeting instructing the executive committee to work for such legislation in the state legislature.

Creation of a division in the state highway department whose duty it would be to patrol the highway of the state, repairing and maintaining the roads in order to prevent deterioration also will be urged before the session at Columbus.

The "pay-as-you-go" plan should be adopted, the farmers insist to prevent the issuance of great amounts of bonds.

Yorkville.—A local family sold its little daughter's curls for $5 to obtain money for food according to F. A. Nunley. The town's leading industry, a tinplate plant, has been idle due to a strike.

Bethesda.—Most of the cigar factories here are closed, due to scarcity of orders. It is not expected that any of them will open up before Jan. 1.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints.

FEEBLE BLOOD WORKS HAVOC

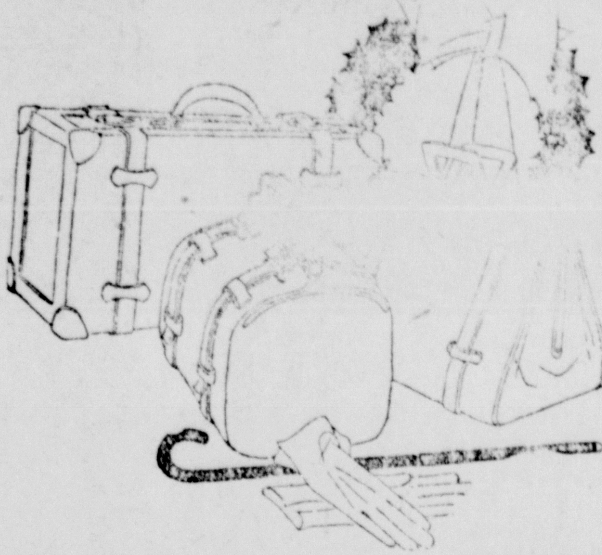

Gude's Pepto-Mangan Makes Red Blood; Liquid and Tablet Form.

When blood becomes thin and weak it is due to a falling off in the number of red blood cells. It is easily recognized by pallid skin or a bleached complexion, loss of appetite or unnatural irritability and a sensation of weakness. It is not dangerous at first. In fact, many people scarcely notice it and go on for days, thinking they will be better the next day.

The great danger is in the possibility of becoming seriously ill from disease, which can work havoc in a body that lacks the endurance and resistance in rich, red blood.

Taken in time and steadily, a few bottles of Gude's Pepto-Mangan are a great help. It improves the quality of the blood by adding red blood cells. They check the weakness, improve the appetite, and clear the complexion.

You can get Gude's Pepto-Mangan in liquid and tablet form at your druggist's. Get the genuine with the name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" on the package advertisement.

Christmas Flowers

A bouquet of choice flowers or select potted plants as Christmas remembrances to MOTHER, WIFE or SWEETHEART means to them just what a filled stocking left by Santa Claus means to the little tots.

Tots clasp their hands with joy and their happy laughter rings through the home when Santa Claus remembers them. MOTHERS, WIVES or SWEETHEARTS also like to be remembered.

THE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

Vice President Coolidge Places Construction on the Greatest Event in Human History.

CHRISTMAS has but one meaning—the Nativity, writes Vice President Calvin Coolidge, in the New York Evening Post. The goodness, the justice, but also the mercy, the helping hand of God. This, the greatest event in human history, has a spiritual meaning. The Savior came to minister to the spiritual nature of man. He showed the true glory and importance of man—and helping him showed the duty of helping one another. Endowed with the power, yet He did not bestow material blessings or set up an earthly kingdom. But to follow Him gave the power to command all those.

To get the world to see the true meaning of things, that is the redemption. The creation was all declared good. It can be perverted. The enemy forever strives "out of good still to find means of evil." The material welfare of men does not come first—to make it first makes it to be destroying and destroyed. Christmas is not instituted for the purpose of earning the reward of gifts, but for giving them in their true significance. "The wages of sin is death, eternal life is the gift of God."

GUIDES BABE OF BETHLEHEM

Lighted Candle in Window on Christmas Eve Will Bring Happiness, an Old Tradition.

AN OLD tradition has it that "a lighted candle set in the window on Christmas eve will guide the Babe of Bethlehem to your home, that He may bring you happiness." In some countries it has long been the custom to mark the coming of Christmas, and John H. Stedman of Rochester, N. Y., has originated a movement to spread it in this country. In a pamphlet urging all to light the "Christ-candle" on Christmas eve he says:

"The Irish will tell you that the Christ-candle was always lighted in their homes in the Emerald Isle as it has been for years and years in Norway and Sweden. Boston has had it for a decade. In Rochester 1916 was our third celebration—the first year a few houses shone—the second over a thousand—the third nearly every one; and it has spread to town, village and country over a 40-mile radius. Many far-away homes, Wisconsin, Maine, California, Florida, kindled their candles from ours, and when you have lighted yours you will appreciate why."

An Old Time Christmas Carol

THE following interesting carol is preserved in Poor Robin's Almanac for 1695. It is of interest as throwing light on the material side of the old-time Christmas celebrations. "Minced" pies are referred to, it will be noticed—a term never heard nowadays. And instead of plum pudding there is "plum porridge." The carol reveals, too, that the material for Christmas decorations was fuller in the old days, including holly, ivy, bay, rosemary and "lawrel."

Now, thrice-welcome Christmas, which brings us good cheer,
Minced pies and plum porridge, good ale and strong beer;
With pig, goose and capon, the best that may be,
So well doth the weather and our stomachs agree.
Observe how the chimneys do smok all about,
The cooks are providing for dinner, no doubt.
But those on whose tables no victuals appear,
O, may they keep Lent all the rest of the year!
With holly and ivy, so green and so gay,
We deck up our houses as fresh as the day.
With hays and rosemary, and lawrel complete,
And everyone now is king of conceit.
But as for curmudgeons, who will not be free,
I wish they may die on the three-legged tree.

It is of interest to learn that the well known and oft used couplet, "Christmas comes but once a year, and when it comes it brings good cheer," originally appeared in a mock Christmas play of the Fifteenth century. Here are the lines:
Bounce bu-kram, volvels dear,
Christmas comes but once a year,
And when it comes it brings good cheer.

New Lawn Game.

A new lawn game of unusual interest has been devised, suggesting some of the features of golf, table pool and croquet, but imitating none of them. Four round-end, rubber-tipped mallets and four balls of distinctive colors, six numbered aluminum pockets to be set on the lawn at specified places, and two end stakes constitute the outfit for two or four players. The pockets are arranged in a rectangle, which may be of considerable size, and each player is allowed three mallet strokes to pocket his ball, making many interesting situations.—Popular Mechanics.

He Knew Where, All Right.
"You say your father was wounded in the war?"
"Yes, sir; very bad."
"Was he shot in the pants?"
"Nossir; in the stumtick."

"And when I kissed her I smelled tobacco."
"You object to a woman who smokes?"
"No, but she doesn't smoke."

Hand-Made Toys

Here are two of many animals that are due to arrive on Christmas morning. A black kitty that will stand any amount of hard usage is very easy to make, requiring only a pair of silk stocking tops that have survived the worn-out feet. Cut off the worn feet and trim out the ankles in a curved line to form the ears. Sew a seam along this line, turn right side out and stuff with cotton to form the body. Wind the remainder of the tops with small cord to form the tail and tie a gay bow of ribbon at the end. Two white bone buttons make the eyes and heavy silk floss the mouth and whiskers and Miss Kitty is dressed up with a bow at the neck. The elephant is made of gray duvety, plush or cotton flannel and cut by a paper pattern. His eyes are shoe buttons, his tusks white cloth.

Christmas Wedding Bells

By MARY GRAY BANNER

ELIZABETH had always, it is true, admired Howard. He was so faithful and good and reliable. He had been good to his mother and his sister. Everyone knew he would be good to a wife, and they all knew, too, that he wanted Elizabeth for his wife.

"You're foolish not to take him," they said. "We all know you have the opportunity to do so every time he goes to see you. We would wager he'd proposed any number of times."

"I don't know about that," Elizabeth would laugh. "They could get nothing out of her."

Once some of them spoke to Howard.

"We wish you two would get married. We're tired of seeing you courting all the time."

Howard smiled.

"It's up to Elizabeth," he said.

One woman spoke to Elizabeth one day in a very serious fashion.

"The trouble with you," the woman said, "is that you've always had so much attention. Not only Howard, but everyone has been charmed by you, and you think that will go on to the end of time. You'll find it won't. They'll stop, and then, where will you be?"

"I don't want to be married so as to escape being an old maid," Elizabeth laughed. "I've seen too many happy ones to be afraid. What's more—I think a lot more of a person who is faithful to someone they've loved than to marry for the sake of marrying. Lots of the 'old maids' are that. Some of the married ones have been so afraid they'd be thought unpopular and unwanted that they've married out of sheer cowardice."

This was very puzzling. Had Elizabeth loved someone in her earlier days—perhaps when she had gone away on a visit? No one knew. But everyone was puzzled. So much puzzled that they asked no more questions. They stopped telling her she should marry Howard. They stopped telling her what a wonderful husband he would make, and how much he loved her.

They were speculating on which visit it could have been when the tragedy occurred. And had the mysterious man married or had he been already married and so Elizabeth, as a nice, quiet girl had quickly taken herself home and out of the way?

It was snowing hard. Elizabeth was getting together her Christmas presents when the door bell rang. Outside stood Howard.

"I thought perhaps you'd not mind if I went with you when you took around the presents," he said. "I knew it was just about your time."

How lovely it was outside. The snow was falling, the air was so clear and cool, and here was Howard, so straight and tall, his face glowing with health, his eyes so clear, so keen and so devoted. It made even the cold, crisp air seem warm and soft and affectionate.

They had delivered the presents and were now passing the small church. Inside someone was practicing on the organ. That was doubtless the organist practicing for the music for the service in the morning. There was much beautiful music always for Christmas! So many wonderful hymns, and such an atmosphere about it all.

"I wish," Howard said, "that he'd stop practicing the Christmas music and play us a wedding march."

"Perhaps he would," said Elizabeth. "Do you mean it?" Howard shouted.

"Oh yes, my dear, of course I mean it. You've not said a word about marrying the last four times I've seen you and I've been about to do it myself. The people—they tried to keep me from seeing how wonderful you were by talking about you, making you what they saw in you—not giving me a chance to see for myself."

The organist played the wedding march. The clergyman came over hurriedly to marry them, bringing two witnesses with him.

"The Christmas bells and the wedding bells are joining together for us," Howard said a little later.

They took the basket which had had the presents in it back home. Then they announced to all the people what they had done.

"Merrie Christmas!" everyone wished them. But Elizabeth answered, "We don't need to be wished Merrie Christmas, but we thank you all just the same."
